The latest update from PHC

In this issue:

- Good news for Private HomeCare
- Dementia Awareness month
- Competition Time
- Recommend a friend
- Private HomeCare Graduation

Welcome to our Autumn edition

This season, read all about our success stories that came about as the result of an extraordinary team effort. Thanks to everyone for all your hard work in helping us maintain our high standards and allowing us to call ourselves one of Ireland's Best Workplaces 2018. Also featured is some information on Dementia Awareness month in October. Do you know anyone you think would make a great carer? Why not recommend us to a friend. With training ongoing, we are thinking about graduation time and celebrating with our successful students.

In it to win it!

Also featured in this edition is a competition to win one of three Private HomeCare goody bags! Read on for more details.

"I've been working for Private HomeCare for 6 months and I couldn't recommend the company enough. They're great to both their clients and carers. They always make sure both are happy. The courses they provide are fantastic and I always look forward to them. I'm absolutely loving working for Private HomeCare"

The latest update from PHC

Well done everyone!

We are happy to announce that PHC has been successful in the tender for HSE home care packages and has been granted ISO 9001 for Quality Assured Service. A lot of hard work by members of staff and our carers is responsible for this success and we wish to thank everyone for their ongoing support and dedication which contributes daily to the high standards we live up to at all times.

Competition Time

To be in with a chance of winning one of three Private HomeCare goody bags, just answer the following question:

Q: What year was Private HomeCare first established?

Please send your answers in to
ASharkey@privatehomecare.ie
Best of luck everyone!

Living Well with Dementia

We would like to recommend a series of events being organized by Living Well with Dementia this October. From theatre and dance to talks and advisory sessions, the awareness initiative kicks off on October 1st with an art exhibition at the Lexicon in Dun Laoghaire. Following this, Sion Hill Theatre will play host to Rose Hendersons play Take Off Your Cornflakes on October 2nd. A number of talks and advice sessions will also be taking place throughout October. All are welcome to the Autumn Tea Dance which will take place on October 22nd at the Oatlands School, Stillorgan. For a full list of events along with dates and times, visit www.livingwellwithdementia.ie

Plans are underway for our next Private HomeCare Graduation. We look forward to celebrating with all PHC students who successfully completed one of the many courses we have on offer. For more information or if you are interested in completing training with us, please email training@privatehomecare.ie

Exciting New Positions with Private HomeCare

Have you a friend or a neighbour that you think would make a great carer? We will have some exciting new supervisory positions to announce in the coming weeks and will be recruiting new Home Support Workers throughout Dublin as well as in Bray and the surrounding area. All suggestions are welcome. For more email recruitment@privatehomecare.ie
